The Health Protection (Coronavirus Restrictions) (No. 2) (Wales) Regulations 2020 as amended

CLOSURE NOTICE

Part A

To: Mr Yan Chan

At: MPH Hotel

Of: Northop Road, Flint Mountain, Flint, Flintshire, CH6 5QG

Trading as: MPH Hotel Ltd

This Closure Notice is served under paragraph 2 of Schedule 5 Regulation 17A of The Health Protection (Coronavirus Restrictions) (No. 2) (Wales) Regulations 2020 (the Regulations).

The Regulations impose certain restrictions to protect against the risks to public health arising from coronavirus. Failure to comply with the requirements of the Regulations, without reasonable excuse, is a criminal offence.

I, Richard Powell, Team Leader - Trading Standards Investigations, designated as a relevant person for the purposes of the Regulations by Flintshire County Council, have reasonable grounds to believe that you, as the person responsible for the premises stated above which is:

an open premises as defined by regulation 12 have failed to take the reasonable measures, which are set out in Part B below, to minimise risk of exposure to coronavirus at the premises, or the spread of Coronavirus by those who have been at the premises. In order to secure compliance it is necessary and proportionate to issue this Closure Notice to prevent continued contravention of the requirements.

Part B. Contravention of the requirements imposed by Regulation 12(2)

You have failed to take the following reasonable measure(s) to ensure

(a)(i) that a distance of 2 metres is maintained between any persons on the premises (except between two members of the same household, or a carer and the person assisted by the carer)

(a)(ii) where persons are required to wait to enter the premises, that a distance of 2 metres is maintained between them (except between two members of the same household, or a carer and the person assisted by the carer)

and / or

You have failed to take the following other reasonable measures which limits close face to face interaction and maintain hygiene

(b)(i) changing the layout of premises including the location of furniture and workstations having previously been advised by the Police that the existing layout of the premises was not compliant

(b)(iv) otherwise controlling the use of, or access to, any other part of the premises – attendees were freely able to walk around the different areas of the premises and mix with others who were not part of the same household

(b)(vi) providing or requiring use of personal protective equipment – attendees were not wearing appropriate face coverings when not seated to consume food or drink.

and / or

(c) provide information to those entering or working at the premises about how to minimise the risk of exposure to coronavirus.

Part C. Action required by you

When this notice is served you must close the bar, the function room, the restaurant, the marquee and the beer garden part of the premises. The hotel rooms may remain in use for residents, but guests may not use the closed area of the premises for any purpose.

Effect of premises Closure Notice

(1) As soon as is reasonably practicable after a premises closure notice takes effect, the person to whom it is issued must ensure that— (a) the parts of the premises to which the notice relates are closed, and (b) no business is carried on or service is provided on, or from, those parts of the premises.

(2) No person may enter, or be on, those parts of the premises closed under sub-paragraph (1) without a reasonable excuse.

(3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2), the circumstances in which a person has a reasonable excuse include where— (a) the person lives on the premises; (b) the person is carrying out essential maintenance or repairs; (c) the person is doing things necessary to ensure that regulation 12(2) can be complied with when the premises are allowed to be open; (d) the person is an enforcement officer or a person assisting an enforcement officer; (e) it is necessary for the person to be on the premises to avoid injury or illness or escape a risk of harm.

When you have taken steps to put in place the reasonable measures set out under Part B you should contact the issuing officer and they will arrange to carry out a visit to assess compliance. When the officer is satisfied that you have complied they will issue you with a written termination notice.

PART D. Publicising premises improvement and closure notices

When a premises improvement notice or a premises closure notice is issued the regulations require, as soon as reasonably practicable after issuing the notice, the enforcement officer to

- (a) display a copy of the notice, and a sign in the form set out in Schedule 6 of the regulations, in a prominent place near every entrance to the premises and
- (b) arrange for the notice to be published on the website of the local authority for the area in which the premises are located.

A copy/copies of the notice and sign required to be displayed on the premises and published on the local authority website must continue to be displayed and published for as long as the notice has effect.

Please note that without a reasonable excuse it is a criminal offence to remove, obscure or damage a notice or sign required to be displayed at each entrance to the premises by the regulations.

Part E. Consequences of non-compliance

Failure to comply with this Closure Notice, without reasonable excuse, is an offence punishable by a fine on summary conviction in a Magistrates Court.

Part F. Your rights to challenge this notice

(1) A person to whom a premises improvement notice or premises closure notice is issued may appeal to a magistrates' court against the notice.

(2) An appeal must be made— (a) by way of complaint for an order, and in accordance with the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980(37), and (b) within 7 days after the day the notice is issued.

(3) But a magistrates' court may allow an appeal to be made after the expiry of the period mentioned in sub-paragraph (2)(b) if satisfied that there is a good reason for the failure to appeal before the expiry of that period (and for any delay in applying for permission to appeal out of time).

(4) A magistrates' court may suspend the effect of a premises improvement notice or premises closure notice pending the determination of an appeal.

(5) On an appeal against a premises improvement notice or premises closure notice, a magistrates' court may— (a) confirm the decision to issue the notice; (b) direct that the notice is to cease to have effect; (c) modify the notice; (d) make such other order as the court considers appropriate.

(6) If the magistrates' court directs that a notice is to cease to have effect or modifies a notice, it may order the local authority for the area in which the premises in question are situated to compensate the person responsible for the premises for loss suffered as the result of the issue of the notice.

(7) An appeal by either party against the decision of a magistrates' court on an appeal under this section may be brought to the Crown Court.

(8) On an appeal to the Crown Court, the Court may— (a) confirm, vary or reverse the decision of the magistrates' court; (b) remit the case to the magistrates' court to dispose of in accordance with directions given by the Crown Court.
