Dear Mr Roberts

Thank you for updating us on the Matters Arising Changes (MACs) consultation.

You have also notified us about the concerns that have arisen in respect of MAC75 and its explanation in the MACs' schedule. Thank you for your thorough and clear explanation. The way in which you intend to remedy the matter appears to us to be proportionate and appropriate. We will take into account the suggestions made with regard to this in your letter of 7 July 2022. It is not necessary, therefore, for the Council to make an additional, formal representation on the matter.

At this stage of the examination, in the event that Councillors, and any others, continue to have concerns they should set these out as representations to us in response to the MACs consultation. We will consider all responses made during the consultation period before finalising our report.

We hope this is helpful.

Yours sincerely

Siân Worden and Claire MacFarlane
